This week is a great time to join The Penny Film's Facebook page! Many of our Penny movie fans are already on the Facebook if you haven't Liked The Penny Film, we have a Contest going on and we're giving away two free copies of The Penny DVD. These Special Festival Edition DVD's will be signed by Nathan Webster - the Director- and sent to the two individuals picked randomly out of the entrants.

For a chance to win: search for The Penny Film on Facebook or Join The Penny Film on Facebook here . Then send an invitation to a least 10 friends. When you're finished tell us about it on The Penny Film wall and we will enter you into the drawing.

The Winner(s) will be announced next week.
